3. Smart is/was the sole shareholder, director and officer of SPC.
4. Between March 2006 and May 2006 Respondents offered to at least one Illinois resident ("Investor") the opportunity to invest $170,000 with Respondents who would place the money into "equipment leasing" contracts.
7. The Respondents told the Investor that the Investor would receive $1,500 per month over an unspecified period of time.
8. In March 2006 and May 2006 Investor wired Respondents an amount totaling totaling $170,000 (the "Investments") payable to "Legacy Capital" in exchange for Respondents' promise to pay the Investor $1,500 per month.
9. Respondents assured the Investor they would use the investments for the business purpose of purchasing "equipment leasing" contracts with profits to be used to pay the amounts due to the Investor.
10. The activities described above in paragraphs 6-10 constitute the offer and sale of an investment contract and are therefore a security as those terms are defined in Sections 2.1, 2.5 and 2.5a of the Illinois Securities Law of 1953 [815 ILCS 5] (the "Act").

FAILURE TO REGISTER SECURITIES

16. By virtue of the foregoing Respondents have violated Sections 12.A and 12.D of the Act.

18. Respondents failed and refused to notify the Investor that they were converting the Investment to their own use and benefit, instead of using it for business purposes, to purchase “equipment leasing” contracts.
19. Section 12.F of the Act provides, inter alia, that it shall be a violation of the Act for any person, “to engage in any transaction, practice or course of business in connection with the sale or purchase of securities which works or tends to work a fraud or deceit upon the purchaser or seller thereof”.
20. Section 12.G of the Act provides, inter alia, that it shall be a violation of the Act for any person, “to obtain money or property through the sale of securities by means of any untrue statement of a material fact or any omission to state a material fact necessary in order to make the statements made, in light of the circumstances under which they were made, not misleading”.
