You are hereby notified that pursuant to Section 11.F of the Illinois Securities Law of 1953 [815 ILCS 5] (the "Act") and 14 Ill. Adm. Code 130, Subpart K, a public hearing will be held at 69 West Washington Street, Suite 1220, Chicago, Illinois 60602, on the 9th day of July, 2008 at the hour of 10:00 a.m. or as soon as possible thereafter, before James Kopecky, Esq., or such other duly designated Hearing Officer of the Secretary of State.

Seibald's (the "Respondent") registration as a salesperson in the State of Illinois and/or granting such other relief as may be authorized under the Act including but not limited to the imposition of a monetary fine in the maximum amount pursuant to Section 11.E (4) of the Act, payable within ten (10) business days of the entry of the Order.

The grounds for such proposed action are as follows:

1. That at all relevant times, the Respondent was registered with the Secretary of State as a salesperson in the State of Illinois pursuant to Section 8 of the Act.
2. That on January 9, 2008 FINRA entered a Letter Of Acceptance, Waiver And Consent (AWC) submitted by the Respondent regarding File No. EAF - 0401150001 Which sanctioned the Respondent as follows:

SMH maintains its principal place of business in Houston, Texas and operates its Prime Brokerage Services Division ("the PBS Division") from New York City. SMH engages in a full-service securities business, including retail and institutional sales, investment banking services, trading, and research. SMH has approximately 425 registered employees.

He is registered as a General Securities Representative (Series 7) and a General Securities Principal (Series 24).
4. That the AWC, in pertinent part, found:

OVERVIEW

In July 2000, SMH expanded its business by acquiring Blackford Securities Corporation, which became SMH's PBS Division. SMH began offering a variety of services to hedge fund clients through its PBS Division. From July 2000 through at least December 2005 (the relevant period), however, it did not have adequate policies and procedures in place to supervise certain of the division's activities. For most of the relevant period, the firm did not have written procedures governing soft dollar payments and the supervision of SMH employees who provided services to hedge fund clients. As a result, SMH allowed improper payments of approximately $325,000 in soft dollars to one hedge fund manager. SMH did not have adequate procedures concerning the contents of hedge fund sales materials prepared and disseminated by the firm and distributed sales literature that did not adequately disclose material investment risks to potential investors in accordance with NASD Notice to Members 03-07. From at least January 2003 to December 2004, SMH failed to retain a-mails and instant messages sent to and received by certain employees in the PBS Division.

The Respondent a former Blackford employee, helped operate SMH's PBS Division while simultaneously managing four hedge funds that received prime brokerage services from SMH. To address the potential conflicts that arose from his dual role, the offering documents for one share class for one fund, as well as an agreement among SMH, the Respondent, and a company that introduced investors to the hedge fund, stated that the Respondent would not share, directly or indirectly, in any commissions SMH earned from trading for the fund class. In April 2002, SMH and the Respondent modified his compensation structure so that he shared in the PBS Division's profit pool, derived in part from commissions SMH earned on the fund's trading. As a result, contrary to the above restrictions, from April 2002 to June 2004, the Respondent shared indirectly in commissions SMH earned on the fund's trading but did not amend the fund's offering document.

FACTS

a. SMH Improperly Allowed the Respondent to Share in Commissions Earned on Whiteford International Trading.

The Respondent helped manage SMH's PBS Division after the firm acquired Blackford Securities in 2000 and, in 2002 was asked to, and did, assume management responsibilities for the division. During this period, he was also serving as a manager and a investment advisor for four separate hedge funds, including an offshore fund named Whiteford International ("the WI Fund"). Consequently, the Respondent had a duty to the WI Fund to direct trades to the brokerage firm that could achieve best execution while also having a financial incentive to direct trades to SMH. In October 2001, the Respondent hired an outside firm, FG, to help find overseas investors for the WI Fund. To address this conflict, the Respondent, FG and SMH executed an agreement dated October 15, 2001, stating: "[SMH] warrants that bonuses or other cash paid to Jack D. Seibald will not be based, in whole or in part, on compensation earned by [SMH] for brokerage transactions effected for [the WI Fund]."

The Respondent created a separate "B Class" of shares for the WI Fund. The "Conflicts of Interest" section of the Private Placement Memorandum (PPM) for that class stated:

Seibald is a registered representative of [SMH]. [SMH] has agreed, however, that no bonuses or other cash paid to Seibald will be based, in whole or in part, on compensation earned by [SMH] for brokerage transactions effected for the Fund.

From October 2001 to April 2002, the Respondent did not share in the WI commissions. he continued to receive a salary from SMH, and his compensation was not tied directly or indirectly to the commissions from, or the level of, WI trading. By April 2002, FG had introduced many new investors into the WI Fund, and the fund had become one of the largest funds operating on the SMH platform. Even though the Respondent had been responsible for

By bringing this business to SMH, he was not receiving any of the benefit from the fund's trading.

In April 2002, SMH and the Respondent negotiated a new agreement that allowed him to receive bonuses from a "profit pool" derived from the overall profitability of the PBS Division. Because the profit pool included at least some money that was earned from the trading of the WI Class B shares, however, the Respondent's new compensation arrangement was contrary to the terms of the October 15, 2001 agreement and the terms of the WI Fund PPM. Nevertheless, the Respondent did not amend, and continued to disseminate, the PPM which incorrectly stated that the brokers would not share, in whole or in part, in the commissions generated through trading by the WI Fund. The Respondent continued to participate in the profit pool until June 30, 2004.

- b. The Respondent Violated NASD Rule 2110 By Altering his Brokers' Compensation So he shared in Commissions from Hedge Fund Trading.

As described above, by agreeing to alter his compensation arrangements to allow him to earn money based, in part, on trading commissions he had agreed not to receive, the Respondent engaged in activity that was not consistent with high standards of commercial honor or just and equitable principles of trade. As a result, the Respondent violated NASD Rule 2110.

5. That Section 8.E (1)(j) of the Act provides, inter alia, that the registration Of a salesperson may be revoked if the Secretary of State finds that such Salesperson has been suspended by any self-regulatory organization Registered under the Federal 1934 Act or the Federal 1974 Act arising from Any fraudulent or deceptive act or a practice in violation of any rule, regulation or standard duly promulgated by the self-regulatory Organization.
6. That FINRA is a self-regulatory organization as specified in Section 8.E (1)(j) of the Act.
7. That by virtue of the foregoing, the Respondent's registration as a Salesperson in the State of Illinois is subject to revocation pursuant to Section 8.E (1)(j) of the Act.
