

Order of Revocation

3. The Order found that between approximately May 1998 and September 1999, Peterson engaged in outside business activities by receiving at least $224,096 in compensation for selling viaticals. In connection therewith, Peterson failed and neglected to give prompt written notice of his engagement in such activities to the Member. Based on the foregoing, Respondent violated NASD Conduct Rules 2110 and 3030.
4. Section 8.E(1)(j) of the Act provides, inter alia, that the registration of a salesperson may be revoked if the Secretary of State finds that such salesperson has been barred by any self-regulatory organization registered under the Federal 1934 Act or the Federal 1974 Act arising from any fraudulent or deceptive act or a practice in violation of any rule, regulation or standard duly promulgated by the self-regulatory organization.
5. That NASD is a self-regulatory organization as specified in Section 8.E(1)(j) of the Act.
6. Section 8.E(3) of the Act provides, inter alia, withdrawal of an application for registration or withdrawal from registration as a salesperson, becomes effective 30 days after receipt of an application to withdraw or within such shorter period of time as the Secretary of State may determine. If no proceeding is pending or instituted and withdrawal automatically becomes effective, the Secretary of State may nevertheless institute a revocation or suspension proceeding within 2 years after withdrawal became effective and enter a revocation or suspension order as of the last date on which registration was effective.
7. By virtue of the foregoing, the Respondent's registration as a salesperson in the State of Illinois is subject to revocation pursuant to Section 8.E(1)(j) of the Act.

WHEREAS, the proposed Conclusions of Law are correct and are adopted by the Secretary of State as follows:

Order of Revocation

1. After proper notification, the Complainant may proceed with a hearing in the Respondent's absence. (735 ILCS 5/1-105 and 5/2-1301; Ryan v. Bening, 1978, 22 Ill. Dec. 873, 66 Ill. App.3d 127, 383 N.E.2d 681; Koenig v. Nardullo, 1968, 99 Ill. App. 480, 241 N.E.2d 567) Significantly, the Notice of Hearing outlines that a default judgment may be entered against a Respondent who fails to appear or answer the charge(s).
2. That permanent bar from association in any manner in the NASD disciplinary action as detailed and documented in Department's exhibit No. 3 is a basis for disqualification under Section 8.E of the Act.
3. That by virtue of the foregoing the Respondent is subject to an Order of Revocation in the State of Illinois and or granting such other relief as may be authorized under the Act.
4. Because of the Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, the pleadings, the January 6, 2005 Order entered by the NASD regarding the Respondent's Disciplinary Proceeding No. C8A050007 admitted as Secretary of State Exhibit No. 3, as well as the fact that the Respondent failed to answer the charges or appear at the hearing, the entry of a written Order of Revocation pursuant to Section 8.E(1) of the Act, which revokes the Respondent as a securities salesperson is proper in this matter.

WHEREAS, the proposed Recommendation of the Hearing Officer is adopted by the Secretary of State.

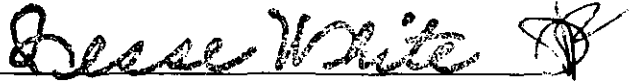

NOW THEREFORE IT IS HEREBY ORDERED: That pursuant to the foregoing Findings of Fact, Conclusions of Law, and the Recommendation of the Hearing Officer:

1. The Respondent's registration as a Securities Salesperson is Revoked as of the last date that which registration was effective in the State of Illinois.

Order of Revocation
